1979 ARMAGNAC DARTIGALONGUE

Dartigalongue was established in 1838 and is run today by the fifth generation of the family. It stands as the oldest and most respected house in Bas-Armagnac. Their Brandies are distilled exclusively from grapes produced in this area. As with Grande Champagne in Cognac, Bas-Armagnac produces the finest Armagnac.

The spirits are aged to perfection in oak casks and are only bottled or blended just prior to shipping.

Tech Note:

From the moment it leaves the still the colourless, crystal-clear eau de vie is stored in seasoned 400 litre oak casks called “pièces”.

Tasting Note:

Dark mahogany bronze colour.

On the nose, incense, candied fruits and a hint of smoky wood

The palate is very pure and straight, superb length, finish on the rancio.
