BOURGOGNE CHARDONNAY 2019 DOMAINE TRAPET PÈRE ET FILS

Jean-Louis Trapet is one of the great names in Gevrey-Chambertin. He is fashioning wines that are elegant and pure, much like himself. He is creating the soil-driven and absolutely pure wines of his father and grandfather's era. While the estate is best known for its three grand crus, the quality at Domaine Trapet is outstanding up and down the hierarchy of their vineyard holdings. The vineyards have been fully farmed under biodynamic principles since 1996 and have been certified biodynamic since 2009.

Grape: 100% Chardonnay

Vineyard & Vinification Note:

Organic sustainable farming

The Wine Advocate Tasting Note:

Fragrant scents of orange blossom, honey, white flowers and peaches introduce Trapet's 2019 Bourgogne Blanc, a medium-bodied, fleshy and exotic wine that's ample, satiny and open-knit. As I've written before, perhaps it's the powers of suggestion at work, but its subtly musky bouquet seems to nod to Trapet's work in Alsace. 87 Points, William Kelley, January 2021

DRINK 2020-2028

Allen Meadows' Burghound Tasting Note:

A whiff of the exotic in the form of viognier adds breadth to the mostly white fleshed fruit nose that is trimmed in a hint of wood. The middle weight flavors are rich to the point of opulence though the lemon-tinged acidity maintains the balance on the refreshing finish. To enjoy upon release. 86 Points, June 2021
