Surface in production: 0,69 ha Soil: ARGILO-CALCAIRE

Density of plantation: 11000 vines / ha Age of vines: 40+ year old

Green harvest: in July. Harvest: By hand, manual sorting in the vineyard and cellar

Tasting Note: This 1er Cru reveals aromas of red fruits with a full, round and well-structured palate. Keep from 8 to 15 years

Allen Meadows' Burghound: Deft wood influence frames brooding and reticent aromas of various dark berries, humus-suffused forest floor and herbal tea. There is solid density and evident power and minerality to the medium weight flavors that deliver very good length on the robust, compact, focused and youthfully austere finish. This is a classically styled LSJ and will require at least some forbearance. 92 Points ♥Jan 2020

Wine Advocate: Produced from six different parcels, the 2017 Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Lavaux Saint-Jacques exhibits aromas of smoky wild berries, peonies, grilled meats and rich forest floor. On the palate, it's medium to full-bodied, velvety and supple, with good depth and volume, concluding with a sapid finish. 92 Points, William Kelley, Feb 2020

Food Pairing: Great with venison, beef and mature cheeses
